Anxious for Divver's Hend.

Less promising is the outlook for Tammany in the Second. There dishinteration is apparent. Leader Divver is back from his California trip, but his presence does not compensate his trate constituents for the absence of the score of election officers whom the Tammany leaders saw sent to prison without lifting a hand to save them.

It is givet out that Divver will not be "turned down." This announcement has had the effect of arraying "Big." Tom effoley against Croker as well as Divver. Foley threatened war against Divver only, but now that Divver is to be protected Foley's hostility extends further. "Fatty" Walsh expected to inherit Divver's shoes. Walsh is a big Injin with influence.
